

If you would like to:

- Contribute your ideas and tips to the presentation.
- Let me know how you have used the resource.
- Get in touch.

You can email me or I am @tombarrett on Twitter

If you add a tip (or even if you don't) please tweet about it and the link so more people can contribute.

Image: ‘Sharing’

I have created a page for all of the Interesting Ways presentations on my blog.

The whole family in one place :-)

Have you seen Maths Maps yet?

WebRep

Calificación general

Thanks for helping

Tom Barrett

#2 - CC Licenses Explained

#3 Compfight

<http://www.compfight.com>

This is an image search engine that will SPECIFICALLY look for CC licensed images on Flickr, and is perhaps more user friendly than the standard Flickr image search. Enter a search term, and choose from the drop-down in the left hand column...

The screenshot displays the Compfight website interface. On the left side, there is a search bar containing the text 'geography' and a dropdown menu with '2,701 images' listed below it. Below the search bar, there are several filter options: 'Tags only' (with a sub-option 'All text'), 'Any license' (with sub-options 'Creative commons' and 'Commercial'), 'Show originals' (with sub-options 'Hide originals' and 'Only originals'), and 'Safe' (with a sub-option 'Unsafe'). A yellow banner reads 'Please respect all licenses!'. Below this, there is a section for 'Support by Ad Packs' featuring 'CS5, SG3 and You' by 'The Ultimate Website Development Team', with icons for 'SiteCrinder' and 'Website Photoshop Plugin'. The main area of the page is a grid of search results, primarily consisting of various maps, geographical photos, and related images. The grid is organized into several rows, with the first row containing 10 images and subsequent rows containing 10-12 images each.

#4 - Simple Flickr CC Search Toy

<http://johnjohnston.info/flickrCC/index.php>

A brilliant little tool with tons of useful features made by John Johnston - I have been using this one for years.

The screenshot shows the Flickr CC Search Toy interface. At the top right, there is a link for "close or Esc Key". Below this is a code editor showing HTML code for embedding a Flickr image. The code includes the image source URL and the attribution text. A red arrow points to the code with the label "Code". Below the code editor are four icons representing different embed options, with a red arrow pointing to them and the label "Embed options". To the right of the embed options is a link for "edit in picnik" and three Creative Commons license stamps: "stamp large", "stamp medium", and "stamp small". A red arrow points to these stamps with the label "Stamp attribution on image". Below the embed options and stamps is a preview of the image, with a red arrow pointing to it and the label "Preview". The preview shows a landscape with trees and water. Below the preview is the attribution text: "Symphony of Colours by Garry - www.visionandimagination.com Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike License".

#5 - Creative Commons Search

<http://labs.creativecommons.org/demos/search>

and

<http://search.creativecommons.org>

A useful site giving you quick access to other search tools for CC licensed material.

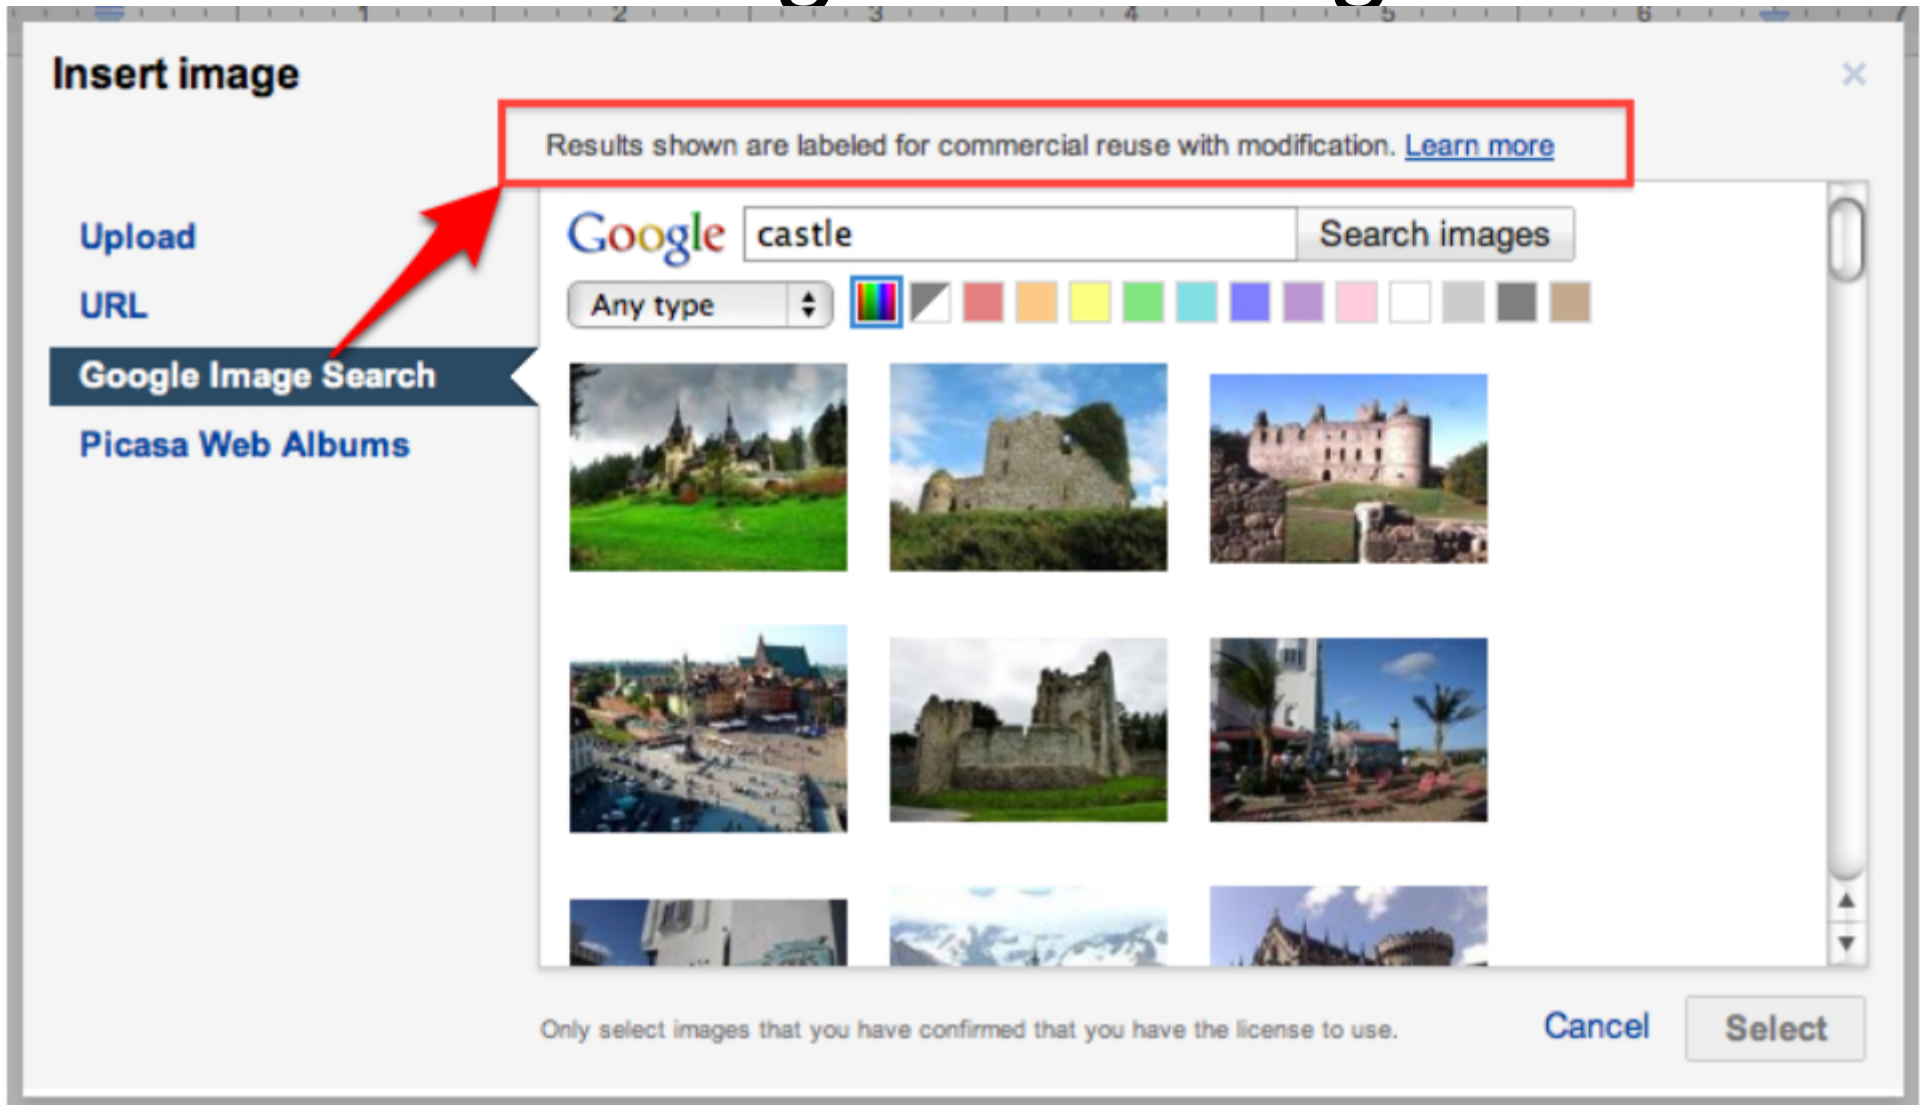

cc Search
Find content you can share, use and remix

I want something that I can... use for commercial purposes; modify, adapt, or build upon.

Search using:

Blip.tv Video	Europeana Media	Flickr Image	Fotopedia Image	Google Web	Google Images Image
Jamendo Music	Open Clip Art Library Image	SpinXpress Media	Wikimedia Commons Media	YouTube Video

#7 - Add CC images in Google Docs

When inserting images into a Google Doc, images are filtered for reuse automatically. More here <http://bit.ly/oOHxFD>

#8 - Copyright Resource Wiki

<http://copyrightfriendly.wikispaces.com>

home Protected page discussion (29) history notify me

Copyright-Friendly and Copyleft (Mostly!) Images and Sound for Use in Media Projects and Web Pages, Blogs, Wikis, etc.

Featured on the Wikispaces blog

NOMINATED FOR 2010 EDUBLOG AWARDS BEST EDUCATIONAL WIKI

Most of the media in these collections are attached to generous copyright licensing. (See Creative Commons Licensing.) Though you use the Web for educational purposes, you should cite or attribute these images to their creators unless otherwise notified! If you see any inappropriate content, please report it to the Copyright Resource Wiki. Note: always check individual licensing notices before publishing on the Web or broadcasting.

And for guidance in using copyrighted materials, consult the Code of Best Practices in Fair Use for Media Literacy Education and the Creative Commons Attribution License.

Portals

- Free Photo Gallery - Free images under Creative Commons licence for public domain resources
- Alegri Photos Public domain and Creative Commons images
- Copyright-friendly WebList and Thumbnail list
- Flickr's Creative Commons Pool: Browse through the images provided by Flickr users who have chosen to offer their pictures under a Creative Commons license. This also allows you to search for these images easily.
- Wyllo: all-in-one picture finder and re-sizer made specifically for bloggers
- Flickr Storm (select appropriate Creative Commons license from pull-down menu)
- FlickrCC Blue Mountains Displays attribution
- Compfight: A Flickr Search Tool

A great resource wiki all about copyright friendly resources for teacher - lots of links to share and explore.
@joycevalenza

#6 - Google CC Image Search

trees

About 41,100,000 results (0.13 seconds)

Select the advanced options →

Advanced search

Safe

Related searches: christmas trees cartoon trees oak tree pine tree tree clipart birch tree

Color in image:

- Any color
- Full color
- Black and white
- Specific color

All images, regardless of license labeling

Only images labeled for reuse. Conditions might apply. More info

Also limit to images labeled for:

- Commercial use
- Modification

use these options for filtering to CC images ←

File type: any filetype

Region: any region

SafeSearch: No filtering Use moderate filtering Use strict filtering

#9 MIT Open Courseware

- Free lecture notes, exams, and videos from MIT. No registration required.
- High school students and educators should check out Highlights for High School.

#10 - Jamendo - CC Music/Sound FX

Jamendo is a community of free, legal and unlimited music published under Creative Commons licenses.

Share your music, download your favorite artists!

<http://www.jamendo.com/en/>

#11 - Soundcloud - CC Music/SoundFX

SoundCloud is a platform that puts your sound at the heart of communities, websites and even apps.

Watch conversations, connections and social experiences happen, with your sound as the spark.

<http://soundcloud.com/>

#12 - Explain it with a Video

Excellent content here to help explain the concept of Creative Commons licensing <http://creativecommons.org/videos>

Creative Commons Kiwi

This short and fun animation video by Creative Commons Aotearoa New Zealand explains the CC licenses.

A Shared Culture

A high-level overview of the goals of Creative Commons and how we are "saving the world from failed sharing." Created by Jesse Dylan, director of the "Yes We Can" video.

Wanna Work Together?

Wanna Work Together? explains in practical details how creators expose, share, and remix their works using our free public licenses.

Building on the Past

The winner of our Moving Images Contest, Justin Cone created a short, succinct "commercial" that demonstrates what Creative Commons is, and how it works, in a slick package.

Science Commons

Get Creative

This short film covers the business of education reform.

CC+: CC + Commerce

Mayer and Bettie

#13 - CC Comic to Explain

Sharing Creative Works is a new comic about Creative Commons. It aims to explain the basics of CC licensing as simply as possible to a general audience, including children. To make remixes and translations as easy as possible, the original artwork is in SVG format and all the assets are available for download. Please contribute!

This comic will also serve as the foundation of the documentation for the Sugar Licensing Activity, our collaboration with One Laptop Per Child. The final documentation and activity will be customized for each country's distribution, so please let us know if you have suggestions for making this document as culturally accessible as possible.

http://wiki.creativecommons.org/Sharing_Creative_Works

#14 - YouTube Copyright School

If we (YouTube) receive a copyright notification for one of your videos, you'll now be required to attend "YouTube Copyright School," which involves watching a copyright tutorial and passing a quiz to show that you've paid attention and understood the content before uploading more content to YouTube.

YouTube blog post about it

#15 - Remix Creative Commons videos

If you mark your YouTube videos as Creative Commons licensed then they become available to other users to remix using the YouTube Video Editor.

http://www.youtube.com/t/creative_commons

<http://www.youtube.com/editor>

The screenshot displays the YouTube Video Editor interface. At the top left, the YouTube logo and "Video Editor" text are visible. A red box highlights the Creative Commons (CC) icon in the top navigation bar. Below this, a red banner reads "search for CC licensed content here". The interface includes a search bar with the text "Search Creative Commons videos" and a "Search" button. A red box highlights a section titled "Remix Creative Commons videos" with the subtext "Search for Creative Commons licensed videos above or check out one of the example videos below. Learn more >". Below this, there are two rows of video thumbnails, each with a duration. The right side of the interface shows a video player with a video of a hand interacting with a tablet. At the bottom, there is a music library section with a track titled "Instrumentals" Volume 1 by Arthur Russell. A "Send Feedback >" link is located in the bottom right corner. A small disclaimer at the very bottom states: "Advertisements may be displayed on videos that use content available through the YouTube Video Editor."

#16 - CC licensed music - there's lots out there!

<https://creativecommons.org/legalmusicforvideos>, my favourite being <http://ccmixter.org/>, which has a special subsite to help you find the music you are looking for: <http://dig.ccmixter.org>

An amazing selection of music so there's no excuse for violating copyright by using commercial music.

My students find Incompetech easy to use for CC music

#17 - Picdrome

- <http://www.picdrome.com> is a growing Public Domain picture collection, free of copyright and licensed under Creative Commons CC0 1.0 Public Domain Dedication.
- All photos are free to download for personal and commercial use, without restriction and are available in high definition. New photos are added on a daily basis.
- The site search is powered by Google Search, making it very easy to find useful images.

#18 - MERLOT

- <http://www.merlot.org/merlot/index.htm> MERLOT is a free and open online community of resources designed primarily for faculty, staff and students of higher education from around the world to share their learning materials and pedagogy.

#19 - Curriki

- <http://www.curriki.org/>
- Curriki is a free and open online community of resources. Offers over 40,000 k-12 learning resources.

#20 - Open Knowledge Repository

- <https://openknowledge.worldbank.org/>
- Open Knowledge Repository (World Bank) more than 2,000 books, articles, reports and research papers under CC BY.

